

Employee Conduct Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2024 | Version: 1.0 | HR Department

DISCLAIMER: This is a sample/demo HR policy document for testing purposes only. Not a real company policy.

1. Purpose

This Employee Conduct Policy defines the standards of professional behaviour expected of all employees, contractors, and consultants working for ACME Corporation. The purpose is to maintain a respectful, professional, and productive work environment.

2. Core Values and Expected Conduct

All employees are expected to demonstrate: Integrity (act with honesty and transparency), Respect (treat all colleagues, clients, and stakeholders with dignity), Accountability (take ownership of work and meet commitments), Collaboration (work effectively with teammates), and Excellence (maintain high standards of quality).

3. Workplace Harassment and Discrimination

ACME Corporation has a zero-tolerance policy towards any form of harassment, discrimination, or bullying in the workplace, including physical, verbal, psychological, or cyber harassment.

Harassment based on gender, race, religion, caste, disability, age, or sexual orientation will result in immediate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Employees who witness or experience harassment must report it to HR or the designated Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) within 30 days.

All complaints will be investigated confidentially and impartially.

4. Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid situations where their personal interests conflict with the interests of the company.

Employees must disclose any potential conflict of interest to HR in writing within 5 working days.

Engaging in external employment or business ventures that compete with ACME Corporation is prohibited without prior written approval.

Accepting gifts from vendors or clients above a value of INR 1,000 must be disclosed to HR.

5. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Employees are required to protect confidential company information including customer data, financial records, trade secrets, and internal processes.

Sharing confidential information with unauthorised parties is a serious violation.

Employees must sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) upon joining. The obligation continues for 2 years post-employment.

6. Use of Company Resources

Company resources including hardware, software, vehicles, and communication systems are provided for business use only.

Accessing inappropriate, illegal, or offensive content using company systems is strictly prohibited.

Employees are responsible for the safekeeping of company property assigned to them.

7. Social Media

Employees must exercise caution and professionalism when using social media in ways associated with ACME Corporation.

Disclosing confidential company information or disparaging the company on social media is prohibited.

8. Disciplinary Process

Violations of this policy will be addressed through ACME Corporation's progressive disciplinary process:

Step 1: Verbal Warning - for minor first-time offences.

Step 2: Written Warning - for repeated minor offences or a first moderate offence.

Step 3: Final Written Warning and Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

Step 4: Termination of employment for serious misconduct or repeated policy violations.

Serious misconduct (e.g., fraud, physical violence, data theft) may result in immediate termination without prior warnings, subject to a fair investigation.

9. Grievance Process

Employees who believe they have been treated unfairly have the right to raise a formal grievance. The grievance must be submitted in writing to HR within 30 days of the incident. HR will acknowledge receipt within 5 working days and complete the investigation within 30 working days.
